Therefore, every Employees is expected to promptly report any Unethical Behavior or Improper Practice or an Alleged Wrongful Conduct

5. DISQUALIFICATIONS

- (i) While it will be ensured that Whistleblowers will be accorded complete protection from unfair treatment, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.
- (ii) Protection under this policy will not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by any Whistleblower, knowing that the allegations are bogus and/or false or with a mala fide intention.
- (iii) Whistleblowers, who make Protected Disclosures under this policy, which subsequently are found to be mala fide or malicious, or Whistleblowers who make 3 (three) or more Protected Disclosures which are found to be frivolous, baseless or reported otherwise than in good faith, maybe disqualified from making further Protected Disclosures under this Policy. In respect of such Whistleblowers, the Manager Group Member would reserve its right to take/recommend appropriate disciplinary action

6. PROCEDURE

- (i) The whistleblowing procedure is intended to be used for serious and sensitive issues, based on factual information and not speculation.
- (ii) All Protected Disclosures under this Policy should be sent in writing to:
 - [The Chairman of Audit Committee or Board of Directors], in case the complaint is against [any Executive Director or any person who is in the level of General Manager or above]; and
 - Compliance Officer, in any other case.
- (iii) The Protected Disclosure should be sent under a covering letter which shall preferably bear the identity of the Whistleblower. The recipient of the Protected Disclosure shall detach the covering letter and forward only the Protected Disclosure to the Designated Authority for investigation. However, the Whistleblower may send communications on an anonymous basis. If a Whistleblower chooses to disclose his or her identity, the same will be treated in confidence and the recipient shall not disclose the same. Nonetheless, Whistleblowers are encouraged to disclose their identities while raising concerns under this policy. This will assist in obtaining additional details or evidence as may be required during the inquiry. This would not have any impact on the Whistleblower's performance review, assignment of work or other matters related to employment with the Manager Group Members.
- (iv) If any person is unwilling or unable to put an oral disclosure in writing, he may approach Designated Authority directly or through his superior or any other Employee. The Designated Authority shall prepare a written summary of the such person's disclosure and provide a copy to such person who shall also be deemed a "Whistleblower".
- (v) The requirement for further contact between the Whistleblower and Designated Authority will depend on the nature of the issue and the clarity of information provided. Further information may be sought from the Whistleblower.
- (vi) The Designated Authority will have the right to entrust the investigation to anyone deemed fit by it to conduct the same.
- (vii) The Designated Authority will separate the covering letter and forward only the Protected Disclosure to the Audit Committee/Board of Directors/ investigators for further investigation, if required.
- (viii) If specific questions need to be asked or clarifications need to be obtained from the Whistleblower, the Designated Authority should do this directly or through discreet delegation to a specific individual.

7. PROTECTION

- (ix) This policy specifically vouches that harassment or victimization of the complainant will not be tolerated. A Whistleblower can report any violation of this rule to the Designated Authority. Such person to whom the complaint is made shall have the responsibility to investigate such a complaint.
- (x) No unfair treatment or adverse action will be meted out to a Whistleblower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Manager Group Member, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistleblowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistleblowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistleblower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure.
- (xi) The Manager Group Member will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistleblower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistleblower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Manager Group Member will arrange for the Whistleblower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.
- (xii) The identity of the Whistleblower will be kept confidential to the extent possible, given the legitimate needs of law and investigation. However, in certain cases the identity of the Whistleblower may be required to be disclosed keeping in mind the seriousness of the issue raised, the credibility of the concern, and the likelihood of confirming the allegation.
- (xiii) A Whistleblower may report any violation of the above clause to the Designated Authority, Audit Committee (or with respect to Manager Group Members which do not have an Audit Committee, the Board of Directors) or in exceptional cases to the Board of Directors for appropriate relief, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.
- (xiv) Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistleblower.

8. INVESTIGATION PROCESS

- (a) All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be thoroughly investigated by the Designated Authority, who will investigate / oversee the investigations under the authorization of the Audit Committee (or with respect to Manager Group Members which do not have an Audit Committee, the Board of Directors). If any member of the Audit Committee/ any director has a conflict of interest in any given case, then they should recuse themselves from the matter on hand.

- (b) The Designated Authority will conduct an investigation only after a preliminary review and only if it is established that the allegation is supported by specific information or that the matter is worthy of management attention/review.
- (c) The person against whom the complaint is made (“Subject”) may be notified of the complaint at the outset of formal investigations and may be given an opportunity to present his/her inputs to the investigating team.
- (d) The identity of the Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible, given the legitimate needs of law and investigation. However, in certain cases the identity of the Subject may be required to be disclosed keeping in mind the seriousness of the issue raised, the credibility of the concern, and the likelihood of confirming the allegation.
- (e) Subject shall have a duty to co-operate with the investigation and will have the right to consult with any person of his/her choice during the investigation.
- (f) Subject will not withhold or tamper with the evidence nor interfere with the investigation in any way.
- (g) Subject will have the right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation and respond to findings, if required.
- (h) When the investigation is completed, the Designated Authority of the Manager Group Member will arrive at a decision, supported by the facts brought out by the investigation and communicate the decision and recommended action to the management.
- (i) During the investigation, the Whistleblower will be kept informed of the timeframe within which the Designated Authority will complete the investigation and arrive at a decision. The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure

9. Others

- (i) The Audit Committee (or with respect to Manager Group Members which do not have an Audit Committee, the Board of Directors) shall review the functioning of the Whistleblower mechanism, at least once in a financial year.
- (ii) This Policy may be amended in the manner set out in the Transaction Documents.

10. Reporting

- (i) A quarterly report will be submitted by the Designated Authority to the Audit Committee (or with respect to Manager Group Members which do not have an Audit Committee, the Board of Directors), detailing the complaints, if any, received from whistleblowers, action taken, decision / recommendation and status of each case.
- (ii) This report or an abridged version with all salient information will be placed in the next Board meeting and shall form a part of the Annual Report of the Manager Group Member.
- (iii) All documents generated during an investigation will be retained by the Designated Authority or such other authority as may be specified in clearly marked 'confidential' files for 7 (seven) years.
